MORE THAN 200 DEPAUW MUSICIANS, SINGERS WILL TAKE PART

More than 200 student musicians and singers will participate in a gigantic festival of music on DePauw University's campus here Wednesday, Nov. 7.

One of a series of free concerts sponsored each year by the DePauw School of Music, the festival has been scheduled for 8:15 p. m. in Meharry Hall.

Major works will be Beethoven's Fantasia for Piano, Chorus and Orchestra, Op. 80, conducted by Dr. Milton S. Trusler, music school director.

Prof. Henry Kolling, a member of DePauw's music faculty, will appear as piano soloist for the Choral Fantasia, which also will feature the combined choruses and symphony orchestra.

The DePauw Symphony, Prof. Herman Berg conducting, will open the festival with Purcell's "Trumpet Voluntary" and three movements from the New World Symphony by Dvorak.

Directed by Prof. George Gove, the university choir will be heard in "Hallelujah" by Beethoven and musical settings of two famous poems, Carl Sandburg's "Lost" and Kreymerberg's "Ballad of Brotherhood."

Prof. Gove also will lead the chapel choir in "This Day Do We Honor" from Mozart's opera, The Magic Flute, and the women's motet choir in an adaptation of the 23rd Psalm by Dvorak.

According to Dr. Trusler, special invitations to attend the festival have been sent to Indiana's music educators and their students.

EDEN DELAYS ANSWER TO RESOLUTION

SAYS HE MUST STUDY U. N. ACTION CALLING FOR CEASE-FIRE

LONDON (UP)—Prime Minister Anthony Eden refused today despite repeated opposition demands to give his answer to the United Nations resolution calling for a cease-fire in the Middle East.

"I must be given an opportunity to study both the resolution and the speeches which were made in this U. N. debate," Eden said.

The prime minister stubbornly refused to elaborate on his statement on the U. N. resolution despite barbed questions and heckling from opposition benches in the House of Commons.

Atmosphere in the Commons was tense Thursday during the debate on Eden's intervention and dispatching of troops in the Israeli-Egyptian crisis. But he easily weathered three confidence votes Thursday night and appeared fresh and confident when he strode to his front bench seat today.

Opposition leaders immediately pounced on the prime minister in today's debate.

Hugh Gaitskell, Socialist leader, asked Eden whether he was prepared to accept the decision of the U. N. General Assembly in calling for a cease-fire in the Middle East.

Eden then made his reply that he had not yet had time to study the U. N. request.

Authoritative sources denied before start of the debate reports that Anthony Nutting, the minister of state for foreign affairs, may resign.

Eden won an overwhelming vote of confidence in the Commons Thursday night on his policy of force against Egypt but "at least" 30 conservative members of parliament were said to hold grave doubts about his actions.

Says Ike Failed To Prevent War

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UP)—Adlai E. Stevenson concentrated his final campaign fires today on charges that President Eisenhower failed to prevent war in the Middle East.

Stevenson delivered a blistering attack on the "catastrophic failure" of Eisenhower-Dulles foreign policy in a nationwide radio-television broadcast Thursday night.

He charged that American policies have played into the hands of Russia, divided the United States from its British and French allies, and pushed Israel into attacking Egypt.

"The question which confronts us is stark and simple—our Middle Eastern policy is at absolute dead end," Stevenson declared.

Stevenson gave his views on the Egyptian fighting for 15 minutes Thursday night, using free radio and TV time to reply to President Eisenhower's report to the nation Wednesday night.

MEANY CALLS FOR NEW LIBERALS FOR NATION

WASHINGTON (UP)—AFL-CIO President George Meany Thursday night called for the election of a "liberal, progressive administration," but stressed that AFL-CIO members "make their own decisions" on how to vote.

Speaking on a closed television circuit to union rallies in 28 cities Meany joined other union leaders here and in New York in appeals to members to get out the vote on election day.

"We don't control votes," he said. "We merely lead with members to vote because we know they'll vote right."

Girl, 11, Killed By Playmate, 7

ROCHESTER, Ind. (UP) — Eleven-year-old Delores Harvey was killed Thursday night when a rifle held by a 7-year-old playmate discharged accidentally.

State police said Delores, daughter of the Donald Harveys of Claypool, was dead on arrival at Woodlawn Hospital here.

She was struck by a bullet discharged from a gun held by Jackie Lee Meyers, 7, at whose home the Harveys were visiting at Beaver Dam Lake.

Police said the boy pointed the weapon out a bedroom window and the shot struck the girl as she played outside the house while her parents visited the Glenn Meyers family in another room.

Lingo Resigns State Position

INDIANAPOLIS (UP)—Indiana Traffic Safety Director Joseph L. Lingo, appointed a few weeks after Governor Craig took office in 1953 to head Indiana's accident prevention program, resigned late Thursday to take a position in private industry.

The former Purdue University professor said in a letter to Craig he had until Dec. 1 to accept the post with a Miami, Fla., traffic consulting firm. His state job pays $10,300 a year.

Lingo said he took the Florida job because he would make more money, he wanted to live in that climate and when he accepted his state post he planned only to stay during Craig's administration.

He said his state job was a "very amiable situation."

Lingo, former director of Purdue's Public Safety Institute, suffered a heart attack a year ago. But his letter of resignation said nothing about health, Craig's office said.

RUSS ARMORED FORCES MOVE INTO HUNGARY

TWO FRESH DIVISIONS REPORTED ROLLING TOWARD BUDAPEST

BUDAPEST, Hungary (UP)—Two fresh divisions of Soviet armor were reported rolling toward Budapest today in spite of Hungary's protests. Soviet armored forces surrounded all Hungarian air bases.

The heavy Soviet troop movements triggered a new wave of fear, blackouts and alerts across revolution-torn Hungary and its shattered capital city.

Russia dispatched the fresh divisions into Hungary Thursday despite Premier Imre Nagy's protests to Soviet Ambassador J. B. Andropov and sent Soviet units already there into alert positions around Hungarian air bases.

Informed sources said the Soviet reinforcements crossed into Hungary from Romania and Russia.

The nationalist-controlled radio at Nyregahaza, 40 miles from the Russian border, and Soviet troops built pontoon bridges over the Sajó River apparently to bypass the main Budapest approach through Miskolc, one of the strongest anti-Communist strongholds.

Nyregahaza radio said the Soviet troop movements touched off fears of hostile air attack. It said military units at the major eastern cities of Debrecen, Miskolc and Szolnok ordered precautionary blackouts.

Colorado Has Four-Inch Snow

Snow, dust and fog hampered wide area of the nation early today, slowing traffic and forcing the close of airport facilities.

Snow accompanied by a 20-degree drop in temperature through most of the Central Rockies, and weathermen reported blowing snow in parts of Colorado.

Four inches of snow was on the ground at Denver while Akron, Colo., had three inches. The snow also penetrated as far south as Trinidad near the New Mexico border where four inches also reported on the ground.

Weathermen warned that light snow would continue during the day in the Central Rockies and northward through the Central and Northern Plains.

Fog blanketed a wide section of the western Great Lakes and mid-Mississippi Valley region, but was expected to clear by midday.

Egyptian Air Force Hard Hit

LONDON — (UP) The Anglo-French command claimed today to have wiped out the Egyptian air force. It broadcast warnings to the Egyptian people indicating that invasion of the Suez Canal Zone was imminent.

Britain's Cyprus Radio warned Arab listeners that "our warships will disembark tanks and guns on Egyptian soil."

A communique issued at Anglo-French expeditionary headquarters on Cyprus named land, sea and air commanders for the final operation.

British and French jet fighters and bombers from Cyprus and aircraft carriers off both ends of the canal diverted some of their attacks on Egyptian airfields to troop concentrations.

Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser, assuming virtual dictatorship in his role as military governor general, abandoned Sinai Desert positions to Israeli attackers and was concentrating his forces west of the canal for promised "total war."

Invading Israeli forces claimed to have taken virtually the entire Sinai Peninsula, including Gaza, a city of about 40,000 and the Gaza Strip jammed with more than 200,000 Palestinian refugees.

Capture of the Sinai Peninsula meant that the Israelis had taken over Egyptian territory 240 miles long and 130 miles deep at its widest point.

LONDON (UP)—France announced today that Anglo-French planes had virtually destroyed the Egyptian air force, and an Allied landing was believed near in defiance of a United Nations appeal.

A spokesman for the French defense department said the Anglo-French forces had won.

Americans Will Leave Hungary

BUDAPEST, Hungary (UP)—The United States decided today to evacuate wives and children of the Budapest legation personnel because of reports of Soviet troop movements and Josef Cardinal Mindszenty appealed to the West for help "in this critical situation."

The Roman Catholic primate of Hungary, released earlier this week after eight years in Communist captivity, told newsmen: "All Hungary demands that the Russians leave the country because the Magyars want to work for themselves and for their own nation."

A U. S. legation source said it had been decided to evacuate the wives and children of all American personnel to the West.

Mindszenty, in his first formal news conference since his return to Budapest, called on the West and particularly the big powers to "support us politically and help us in this critical situation."

He said he had received a telegram of congratulations and blessing from Pope Pius XII and added that he would like to go to Rome to see the Pontiff personally.

"I have many things to tell the Holy See," he said. "However, unfortunately, that is not possible at present."

The conference came to an abrupt halt when a Hungarian newsman asked him to comment on reports of some political groups favoring him for premier. "I am the prime primate," the cardinal replied firmly and then left the room.

POLITICS OUT FOR PRESIDENT DUE TO CRISIS

BUSY WITH GRIM TASK OF HALTING OUTBREAK OF WORLD WAR III

WASHINGTON, (UP) — President Eisenhower put aside his role of political campaigner today and concentrated on the grim task of preventing World War III.

Mr. Eisenhower delivered his "final, formal address of this political campaign" before 18,000 cheering Republican partisans in Philadelphia's Convention Hall Thursday night.

From here on out, the Chief Executive will leave to the Republican organization and his political lieutenants the chore of completing his second term election campaign.

Addressing himself to the grave crisis in the Middle East, the President declared:

"I shall continue to take all actions and decisions in these times, not as a candidate for office, but as President of all the United States."

He pledged to "practice the peace that we preach," saying that "the only way to win World War III is to prevent it."

Mr. Eisenhower had planned to wind up his campaign in Boston on election eve. But that plan was abandoned in the wake of the fighting in Egypt. He will, however, speak briefly on a GOP election eve TV program, urging a big turnout at the polls next Tuesday.

Mr. Eisenhower was interrupted 34 times by applause in his 28 minute Philadelphia speech.

Mr. Eisenhower said Adlai E. Stevenson's proposal for ending H-bomb tests and the draft posed the possibility of deadly weakness in a time of international peril.

"We continue to build our strength, not to make war, but to be spared it," Mr. Eisenhower said.

"We can judge today the need of this strength by a simple question. Would we today feel safe or secure as a nation if we, sometime ago had ceased perfecting our military weapons and even abandoned our military draft?"

There were shouts of "No! No!" from the crowd.

"That is no formula for peace," he continued. "It is a design for disaster."

Cloverdale Wins Opening Contest

The Cloverdale high school basketball team got off to a flying start for the 1956-57 basketball season by defeating the Belle Union quintet 65 to 58 on the Fillmore gymnasium floor Thursday evening.

It looked for the first few minutes of play, as though the Clovers would run away with the game, but then Walton got hot and within a minute or two, the score was tied and remained close until early in the second half. At half time, the score was 28 to 26 in favor of Cloverdale.

In the beginning of the second half, the Clovers got the jump on Belle Union and took a commanding lead, but once more the Belle Union players urged on by their supporters, ran the score up until it was close, but they did not have the wherewithal to overtake the Clovers and they finally won with a seven point margin.

Simmons and Walton were outstanding for Belle Union with 12 points for Simmons and 33 for Walton. For Cloverdale Sheese, a new man, Huber, Hays and Halton, along with Steele were top scorers. Sheese led his team with 15 points, while Walton was high man for Belle Union with a grand total of 33 points. He scored 14 field goals which is near the record high.

In the preliminary game between the second teams of the schools, Cloverdale again outscored the boys from Belle Union, winning handily by the score of 48 to 23.

A nice crowd from each school turned out for the opener of the 1956 season.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Birkemeier

Miss Sharon Sue Rissler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Rissler, Reelsville R. 2, and Charles Robert Birkemeier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Birkemeier, Poland R. 2, were united in marriage Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the Big Walnut Baptist church.

Mrs. Mace Aker was pianist and Rev. Ike Strain sang "Al-ways," "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The Rev. Raymond Skelton read the vows of the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with palms, baskets of white fugi mums and Pimochia pom poms and lighted by candelabra.

Little Julia Stiltz, cousin of the bride, preceded the bride and dropped rose petals from a basket decorated with yellow bows. She wore a white dress with white accessories.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white chantilly lace and tulle over satin. The sculptured bodice was accented by a wing collar and long lace sleeves ending in bridal points over her hands. Her billowy waltz length skirt featured a deep inset of lace forming a filmy flounce at the bottom. Her veil of illusion net showered from a white pearl crown. She carried a cascade bouquet of white stephanotis centered with an orchid and a white lace handkerchief belonging to her great grand-mother.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Donald Phipps, appeared in a princess style, ballerina length gown of copper crystal with matching head band. She carried a colonial bouquet of bronze fugi mums.

The bridesmaids, Miss Juanita Birkemeier, sister of the bride-

Imagination Needed For Good Trump Management

If many situations where the winning play for declarer is to postpone leading trumps, the necessity for that postponement is far from obvious. In today's deal, for example, it was completely hidden—as far as Mr. Muzzy was concerned, anyway.

The best way to avoid a trap of this kind is to pause before playing that first card from dummy at trick one and plan your play. Forget about overtricks. Concentrate on the safest method of play which will bring in enough tricks for your contract, figuring on unfavorable distribution of the opposing cards.

PLAN PLAY

Look at what happened to Mr. Muzzy in this hand. Mr. Champion led the nine of diamonds, the deuce went on from the board and Mrs. Keen promptly ducked. Mr. Muzzy won with the jack and smiled happily at this favorable development.

He could see no danger. As he analyzed it, he had one club loser and either one or two spade losers. If the ace of spades happened to be on his right, he could lead up to his king and win a trick with that card on the first or second round of the suit. He could then ruff a spade in dummy and actually make five-odd.

But in order to lead up to the king of spades he had to enter dummy. That was easy and he led the nine of hearts to the ace. A spade was returned and the king put up. Mr. Champion won with the ace and led back a trump.

Worried now, Mr. Muzzy won on the board and led another spade.

Mr. Champion won with the ten and proceeded to lead the last trump off the board. Now Mr. Muzzy had to lose three spades and a club for down one.

SEE THE NEED

"Did you think you bid five, Muzzy?" asked Mr. Champion. "Certainly not," replied Mr. Muzzy hotly. "Can I help it if the ace of spades was behind my king?"

Mr. Champion grinned wickedly. "In a word, yes," he said. "In fact, I think I can prove that you were trying to make five-odd. Tell me, what would you have led at trick two if you had held three spades to the six spot instead of three to the king?"

"I'd have led a spade from my hand," Mr. Muzzy admitted. "There'd be no point in using a trump to enter dummy to lead a spade up to a six spot."

"Exactly," said Mr. Champion. "With a weaker holding in spades you would have made your contract. You used a vital trump at trick two just because it's usually the correct play to lead up to a king. Good trump management requires enough imagination to see the need for an unusual play now and then."

SUEZ CANAL'S SOUTHERN ENTRANCE CLOSED TODAY

CAIRO (UP)—Egyptian forces shot down three more British planes today, making a total of nine downed since Thursday morning, the Egyptian general headquarters announced.

The headquarters communique said Anglo-French forces have carried out 42 air raids on Egypt in the past 24 hours. It added that the attacking bombers hit hard at 'thickly populated towns' but casualties are not yet known.

British and French bombers sank a big fishing ship in the southern entrance of the Suez Canal Thursday night, blocking the entrance to the waterway, according to the communique. Earlier the Egyptians reported the sinking of a naval unit by bombers in Lake Timsah, a link in the canal.

News of the situation here has been sparse since President Gamal Abdel Nasser declared a state of emergency Thursday, putting into effect martial law and censorship. The emergency decree named Nasser military governor general with virtual dictatorial powers.

Cairo crowds cheered Nasser tumultuously as he passed through the streets to and from the second emergency cabinet meeting in two days. There was no indication that Egypt's reported military reverses had dimmed Nasser's popularity.

NO PAPERS DELIVERED

CLEVELAND, (UP)—Truck drivers refused today to deliver the Cleveland Plain Dealer because it also carried the titles of the city's two other struck newspapers.

The truck drivers' action left the city without a newspaper.

Even though its contract with the American Newspaper Guild expired the previous midnight, the Cleveland Plain Dealer had published its regular edition this morning.

OBITUARY
A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is still,
A place is vacant in our house
Which never can be filled;
God in his wisdom has recalled
The boon his love has given
And though the body slumbers here
The soul is safe in heaven.
Caroline May Sutherland Myers daughter of Elijah and Elizabeth Triplett Sutherland was born July 25, 1873, and entered into her eternal rest 7:25 P. M., Friday October 23, 1956, age 83 years, 2
mo. and 1 day.
Her marriage to William H.
Myers on July 27, 1891, was the beginning of an unusually long and happy married life. To this union were born four children:
Lee of Russellville, Nellie Phillips of Russellville, Lon of Crawfords-ville, and Landy of New Market.
She entered into the Christian life while a young woman by uniting with the Clinton Falls Church and later moved her membership to the Russellville Federated Church, thus demonstrating her joy in services to her church and her King. Her church, its members and the community will miss her kindly counsel and cheery smile, but can rejoice that her loss is her gain.
She was a member of the Lawton Temple Pythian Sisters.
Her good husband and faithful companion of 63 years passed away Aug. 19, 1954.
Surviving are 3 sons, 1 daughter, 13 grandchildren, 23 great grandchildren, and 1 great great grandchild, a step-son, John Myers of Bainbridge; a stepdaughter, Alma Bart of California; three sisters, Viola Saylor of Judson, Ada Dodge of Belle Union and Dolly Harbison of Greencastle; and one brother,
Ray Sutherland of Crawfordsville.
Preceding her besides her husband are 2 brothers and 1 sister.
Mrs. Myers had been in failing health for several years, but on Aug. 4 was confined to her bed with the malady which slowly but surely undermined her viti-lity. Although a constant sufferer, her thoughts were not concerned about her own comfort but for the loved ones who cared for her so lovingly day and night through the weary weeks of illness.
For 83 years she lived near Russellville and her exemplary life made an impression upon the spiritual and social life of the community that will endure for generations.
The writer of this sketch has always looked upon her as an ideal mother, a wonderful friend and neighbor.
Her pride, her joy, her life were her family and while perhaps she has not left much of worldly goods to bestow upon them, she has left far more precious possessions an untarnished name, a christian character, a loyal heart, a gaiety of spirit that refused to be conquered and unbounded faith to God.
TO MOTHER
Oh how we'll miss you, Mother
dear,

How lonesome it will be
Your sunny smile and happy face
No more on earth to see.
Your kindly greetings we so loved
We'll never ne'er forget
And hope to meet on that fair shore when Life's last sun is set.
Those younger days when children small Around your knee we'd play
'Twas then you taught us to be Christ.
We heard you sing and pray.
Dear One, altho your soul has flown,
To realms of Heavenly bliss
Your precious life lives on and on
But Mother—how we'll miss
And so a sad farewell, we bid
But only for a time,
We'll meet again in that Fair land
That blissful Heavenly clime.

Returning Coats to Store
Raises Price for All of Us

By Margaret Latrobe

Men, it says here, enjoy taking their wives along when shopping for clothes. More often than not, it's mamma who peers at the worsted in the haberdashery's front window to be sure it's a good true blue by daylight. And her husband is delighted with the suit she picks out for him. Salesmen in stores for men will tell you to look out for the little woman—she knows what she wants. For Pop.

Funny that when milady gets into a salon for her own duds, she knows from nothing. Not one female in a dressmaker's dozen buys clothes on a budget. Not one in ten really plans clothes ahead of momentary needs and inspiration. Women customers are always wrong, in their own minds, even when they're right.

Which is why a coat buyer of 30 years experience says, ruefully, "Between one-fourth and one-half of our merchandise is returned." Nothing wrong with it, not worn once and sneakily sent back for credit—just returned because women buy thoughtlessly, irresponsibly and for the goofiest of reasons. This buyer told me of customers who bring a friend or two around for a lovely afternoon of trying on clothes. After taking up an hour or two of a saleslady's time they feel they ought to buy something. Rude not to.

So a coat or a dress or a suit is "charged and sent." Milady knows for sure it's going straight back Monday morning. And this brief weekend visit costs the store a dollar each way for the trip.

In men's clothes it's different. Maybe Sam made the pants too long, but at least he made them just for Pop. And they can't be returned without a board of directors' meeting to find out why.

Another shop owner experienced (and disillusioned) in the ways of women shoppers says it's the triple-view mirror that causes customers to snap at the help. "I can't look that bad," they think, immediately venting their anger on whoever is near. Those killing time usually are the ill-tempered clavichords, incidental.

Some shops protect themselves by a no-nonsense policy about "approvals." If madame approves of a garment enough to buy it, her approval had better hold out. They aren't taking back nothing from nobody. Yet most shops are understanding about genuine requests to match colors or fabrics at home, provided the garment is back in the store the next morning.

Maybe the ladies shouldn't be admitted to shops without some man in tow. If wives select men's clothes so successfully, perhaps the menfolks would work miracles in reverse. (Shops love to see a man accompanying his wife. The lads will spend more, and faster than a lone doll.) Or maybe they ought to strike off some medals for customers who haven't returned a nickle's worth in XXX years.

This wacky habit of sending the stuff back where it came from is raising the price of coats—for us all.
